NOTE FROM ACTING HEAD TEACHER

Dear Parents

As-salaamu alaikom

a very exciting Friday, masha'Allah. KS1 assembly introduced us to the Chinese New Year and during the KS2 assembly pupils discussed World Religions; I was impressed by the knowledge our pupils already have, masha'Allah. But Friday isn't over yet...I am now looking forward to our very first Movie Night....! :)

HADITH OF THE WEEK

Allah the Exalted said: We have not sent you except as a mercy to the worlds.
Surah Al-Anbiya 21:107

The Right of the Fortnight

"Every child has the right to a name and nationality"

HIGHLIGHT OF THE WEEK

The Key Stage 1 assembly was all about the Chinese New Year. Miss Grant even demonstrated the dragon dance!

In the Key Stage 2 assembly pupils learnt about the World Religion Day aims of tolerance and harmony.

The Year 4 children carried out an investigation related to states of matter in their science lesson this week.

EYFS

TRADITIONAL TALES

"Nursery enjoyed making and then eating porridge. Some said 'I'm Daddy Bear' and some said 'I'm Goldilocks and this porridge is yummy'".

THE JOY OF READING

Nursery was very excited to take home reading books for the first time.

This will hopefully inspire a lifelong love for reading.

Movie Night

The first PTA Movie Night took place on Friday. It was so popular that tickets were sold by Wednesday. Children enjoyed popcorn and pizza as they watched Kung Fu Panda with their friends.
