NOTE FROM ACTING HEAD TEACHER

As-salaamu alaikom welcome to this week's World Book Day Special Edition of our newsletter. What better way to instil the love for reading than a fun packed World Book Day. I am not sure who enjoyed the day more, pupils or teachers...;) but there definitely was still a buzz in the building when I came to school this morning.

WHO IS ON TIME?

Year 5 had one late this week! Well done.

HADITH OF THE WEEK

The Prophet (saw) said : He who does not show mercy to our little ones or recognize the rights of our elders is not one of us.
(Musnad Ahmad)

The Right of the Fortnight

Education must develop every child's talents and abilities to the full.

HIGHLIGHT OF THE WEEK

Children's authors Sara Khan and Aisha Mirza visited on 'World Book Day' and read their latest books to the children. The children loved listening to 'Time for bed Zayd' and 'My Little Book about Allah'. Key Stage 2 children asked questions about how they started writing books.

Juma'ah Special

Mr Badjenki delivered the khutbah, speaking about cleanliness and hygiene in Islam.

Assembly

Both assemblies today celebrated International Women's Day which takes place on March 8th. Mrs Fiaz talked to KS2 about pioneering women from the past and present day. Mrs Chaudhry spoke to KS1 about the four best women from the people of paradise, mentioned in the hadith of the Prophet(saw).
