NOTE FROM HEAD TEACHER

Dear Parents

As-salaamu alaikom

We are looking back on Anti-Bullying Week which kicked off with Odd Socks Day as in previous years. Although the event was slightly watered down as school uniform is not compulsory at the moment, it was just as stripy....spotty.... colourful and enjoyable as ever. Proof that there is still 'old normal' in the 'new normal', al hamdu'lillah.

Wishing you all a restful weekend.

Mrs Ghafari

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

"Ali ibn abu Talib(ra) said:

"A person's true patience is shown in times of anger".

The Right of the Fortnight

Article 27 Every child has the right to food, clothing and a safe place to live and a safe environment.

ASSEMBLY

It's World Children's Day and Sara and Cady, the Year 6 Rights Ambassadors, spoke about the Rights of the Child. Mrs Fiaz talked about young role models who have campaigned on global issues and how they can inspire us.

ANTI-BULLYING WEEK

This week pupils have been learning how we all have a part to play to stop bullying. The theme this year is 'United Against Bullying'. Odd Socks Day on Monday highlighted how we are all unique, with everyone in their colourful assortment of socks.

Pupil Voice

On World Children's Day this is what our pupils have to say:

"I believe children's safety and health are important today, especially with the pandemic". Abdullah, Y5

"The issue which is most important for children today is that they are well fed and have a good education." Shanzay, Y5

"If I could start a campaign for children, I'd fight for children to always have a family to stay and live with." Ismah, Y6

The most important issue today is bullying; it could ruin someone's life if something was posted online." Zakariya, Y6,

"I would fight for children not to be turned into slaves because of the religion or ethnicity they are." Perry, Y6

"Article 24 is most important, especially right now, for the children to have the right to good health." Khadeeja, Y6

"If I were to start a campaign, I would make sure all schools were free so that every child has the right to an education." Zaina, Y6

"It's important to have food and water for our health. I'm glad we have these rights." Aaliyah, Year 3

"Bullying is the most important issue, if I saw a person getting bullied I would tell a teacher and make sure it stopped." Moiza, Year 2

AWARD NEWS

We are delighted to share the exciting news that Muhammad Hassan Sheikh, Year 3, has been shortlisted by the 2020 Young Muslim Writers Awards in the Short Story Category, for his story 'Race In Space'. Congratulations!

HIGHLIGHTS

Year 3 impressed Mr Badjenki with their great adab for our Prophet(saw) in their Islamic Studies lesson. They could not bring themselves to write the things the Quraysh used to say about Muhammad(saw), when asked on their question sheet. Instead they wrote 'they prefer not to say' because it was so terrible.

Our first Rights Ambassadors meeting - socially distanced of course!
