NOTE FROM HEAD TEACHER

Dear Parents

As-salaamu alaikum

Welcome back to school. I hope that everyone had a restful half term break.

A special welcome to our new parents and pupils who have joined us this half term. We are always delighted to extend our MMPS family and I am confident that our new pupils will settle in quickly.

Today I was privileged to witness election speeches given by our candidates for the 'Rights Respecting Ambassador' roles and was utterly impressed by the respectful attitude of candidates and voters. Results will be out later today and I can't wait.

Mrs . Ghafari

AYAT OF THE WEEK

No doubt, with every difficulty there is relief.
(Qur'an 94:5-6)

The Right of the Fortnight

Article 24 Every child has the right to the best possible health, with clean water,

ASSEMBLY

Mrs Rahimi spoke about Parliament Week. Children learnt no matter what their age, they still have a voice on issues that matter to them

PARLIAMENT WEEK

All week children have been watching videos, doing activities and learning all about how Parliament works, how issues are debated and laws made. Friday was Election Day and candidates presented their own speeches debate topics, ranging from 'Where to go on the next school trip' to 'Why cars should be banned in city centres.' Pupils then voted for the Rights Respecting Ambassadors for their class.

Reception have been voting too. They voted for which book to read at milk time by placing a duplo block next to it. They used name cards to vote for the dinosaur picture to colour in for art.

HIGHLIGHTS

Year 6 are learning about Trade in Geography to learn about "Where our stuff comes from?". They began by trading cards based on different data from countries, which they thoroughly enjoyed! We have a lot of competitive personalities in Year 6 it seems!

And in computing they were busy planning for their own website.

Pupil Voice

"I think it's great we have Parliament week because we learn about Parliament and some of us might want to be politicians when we're older."
Perry, Year 6

"It's important to have Parliament because it means there are fair rules."
Laila, Year 6

"Parliament week is good to learn about who makes the rules."
Cady, Year 6

"It's important we have Parliament otherwise it'd be chaos."
Khadeeja, Year 6

"If we didn't have Parliament, everyone would do what they like and people could commit crimes."
Ismah, Year 6

"MPs help people that live in their area"
Syed Ali, Year 1
