Dear Parents / Carers,
As-salaamu alaikom.

Welcome back and what a welcome we had!

Thanks to the leadership and perseverance of our PTA and never-ending generosity of our parents, our pupils returned to a colourful playground – the long-awaited project complete, al hamdu'lillah. As ever, I am truly humbled by what our school ummah achieved – may Allah swt reward you all.

Second highlight of the week – World Book Day. I am still undecided though as to who enjoyed it more... the children or the grown-ups!

Wasalaam,
Mrs Ghafori

The Right of the Fortnight

Article 29

Education must develop every child's personality, talent and abilities to the full.

AYAHA OF THE WEEK

The Quran says:
“Allah commands justice, kindness and generosity to your relatives.”

WORLD BOOK DAY

I love reading
Code Name Bananas.
Musa,
Year 3

Year 6 enjoyed reading stories to the Nursery pupils.

From Year 6 to Nursery to Mrs Ghafori, everyone at MMPS joined in the fun and dressed up to celebrate World Book Day!

I love reading
Mystery of Tally Ho Cottage. Eesa,
Year 3

MORE WORLD BOOK DAY HIGHLIGHTS

Reception created their own story characters using wooden spoons.

Year 5 started World Book Day off with some mindful reading yoga. They then took part in the world book day premier league quiz.

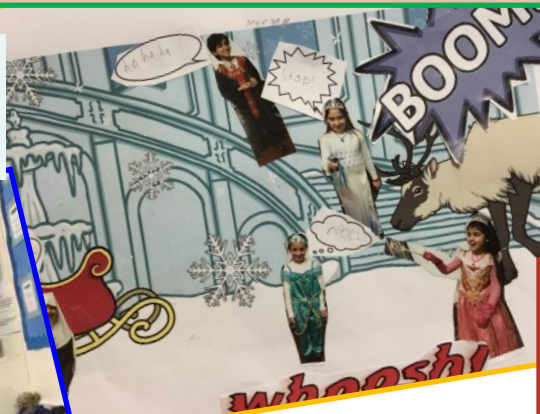

Year 2 had a shared reading session with Year 5, then later visited the bookfair in the hall.

I love reading 'Horrid Henry'. Irtaza, Year 3

Year 3 became characters in their own comic books.

Can you guess which characters Year 1 have dressed up as?

OTHER HIGHLIGHTS OF THE WEEK

Learn to Ride training took place in school today for pupils in Year 3 and 4.

Pupils really gained confidence, with some whizzing around by the end and others saying they now wanted to get a bike to practise even more.

Despite some wet weather, pupils in the WE ARE ADVENTURERS after school club built their own shelter to protect themselves from the elements. More great outdoor skills and fun to come this term!

Year 5 and 6 boys took part in whole host of activities at the KD Grammar taster day. From science experiments to martial arts to archery and of course jummah prayer.

Year 5&6 High School Taster Day

Mrs Mohamed welcomed the girls to the high school in costume, as they celebrated World Book Day.

The girls started the day with a tour of the school and ice breaker activities led by MIGSG students.
