

NOTE FROM HEAD TEACHER

Dear Parents / Carers,
Assalaamu alaikum,
School life feels 'back to normal' with the traditionally busiest term of the year upon us.
End of year trips are being arranged, Sports Day planning meetings are taking place, preparations for end of year presentation evening are going on behind the scenes - busy, busy, busy!
Our Year 6 pupils have completed their SATs assessments this week and enjoyed a well-deserved slice of cake yesterday after having worked very hard in preparation for entrance exams and Key Stage 2 SATs. Well done, Year 6!
Wishing you all a relaxing weekend.
Wasalaam,
Mrs Ghafari

Year 6 SATS WEEK

Alhamdulillah they are all completed!

Year 6 have been working hard all week with their SATS assessments.

Mrs Fiaz gave them a welcome treat after the exams!

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE WEEK

Jamie Bond needs Year 5's help. When chasing the baddies on his last mission he slipped. His shoes did not create enough friction when running. So Year 5 are on a Top Secret Mission to design a new shoe to ensure he doesn't slip.

In PSHE, Year 3 looked at coping strategies for dealing with uncomfortable emotions.

Year 4 have been exploring and learning about different electrical appliances.

Year 5 continued working with artist Sharon Campbell on their design for a stained glass window for Withington Baths.

Pupils enjoyed breakfast with Mrs Ghafari. They had an opportunity to share their thoughts and ideas about school life.
